SWALLOWED HIS FALSE TEETH AND DIED .-SWALLOWED HIS FAISE TEETH AND DIED.—
John Steinhart, of Barnsville, Sullivan county, N. Y., an employe of the Gilgour bluestone quarries, was seized with a coughing fit a few days ago, and while coughing swallowed a rubber plate with five false teeth on it. He went to New York to consult physicians, but could find no relief. He returned home and rapidly wasted away. He died Wednesday night in great agony. He leaves a widow, four children, an insane brother and a decrepit father, who were all dependent on him for support.

Changes in the Offices. Col. Thos. Smith, of Warrenton, Virginia, a son of ex-Governor Smith, better known as "Extra Billy," has been appointed United States attorney for New Mexico. Col. "Tom"

Smith is a prominent and active democrat of Virginia. A year or two ago he fought a duel with Col. Elam, editor of the Richmond Whig, organ of the readjusters, and shot the latter in the mouth. The duel had its origin in politics. It grew out of some alleged reflections by Mr. Elam upon ex-Gov. Smith.

Eugene E. White, of Arkansas, has been appointed Indian agent at the Prescott (Ark.) Indian agency. dian agency.

The Secretary of the Treasury has made the following appointments in the lighthouse service: Christian Bferke, as second mate of the lighthouse tender Pansy; John O. Thatcher, as engineer of the steamer Westaria, and J. F. Traver, as second assistant engineer of the steamer paign fund.

The indications are that there will not be much money go out of Washington this fall for campaign purposes for either party. The government clerks, it is claimed, are making no politicians from New York and contributions. Politicians from New York and Virginia say it is very difficult to get contributions within the states, the same feeling existing there on account of the failure of the administration to harken to all their appeals for patronage. It is said to have been decided that no more appointments are to be made in Ohio, Virginia and New York until after the fall elections, as it is thought that they would do more harm than good at this time.

These two were thought to be friendless and easily displaced. ng eyes on their positions and proceeded to secure the necessary influence to supplant them. Armed with a goodly supply of recommendations number one called upon Secretary amar. The Secretary did not reply to the strongly backed application, but instead rang his bell and asked for the lady employed as perator in his department. The Secretary ooked over some papers until her arrival, and hen turning to her said, "Miss ----, do you ntend resigning your position?" "Is your work so heavy that you require an ssistant?" again asked the Secretary. "No, sir," was the reply, "I have no difficulty you want," said the Secretary, turning to the young man; "do you want to get this lady's place by having her dismissed?" The young man had become very much emarrassed before this, and, after mumbling mething about understanding changes were to be made, was gladto beat a hasty retreat. The other office-seeker had directed his efforts urther up-town and had commenced the campaign by filing his papers in one of the other departments. His brother operators learning of his intention cried "shame," and this, to gether with the treatment received by his comanion, induced him to withdraw his application without taking any further steps.

A confidential friend of ex-Speaker Randall said to a STAR reporter to-day:

"The report that Mr. Randall is in bad health again is incorrect. His health is very good, attend the conference of Pennsylvania congress. Activity of the New York Prohibitiontronage because his presence is not necessary. As a rule the democratic congressmen of Pennsylvania have agreed upon the men they wanted appointed to federal positions, and they have had no trouble about appointments. The President has been very kind to Mr. Randall and his colleagues, and has, I think, appreciated the fact that they have endeavored to relieve him by recommending only fit men tor lieve him by recommending only fit men for office. I know that Mr. Randall has recommended only men whom he believed to be of good character. Mr. Randall will not return to Washington for a month, at least."

Secretary Lamar and the Attorneys. HIS DECISION IN ACCORDANCE WITH A LAW WHICH NEEDS MODIFICATION-PATENT AT-TORNEYS NOT AFFECTED. A STAR reporter to-day asked a prominent ex-government official what he thought of Secetary Lamar's recent decision prohibiting former government employes from appearing as ounsel in cases pending in any of the departments within two years after leaving the service. He replied:

"I don't see how he could do otherwise under that law. His opinion was fully warranted by the situation, but still I think that the law is an the situation, but still I think that the law is an outrageous one and ought to be changed. I don't believe that Congress intended to punish a man for being in the government service. The law should be changed so as to prohibit a man from appearing as counsel in a case with which he had anything to do while in the service. As it is now, an employe in the Interior department cannot prosecute a pending case before the Treasury department, although he has no chance of knowing anything about it because of his official position. This decision does not apply to patents, as they are not considered a claim against the government." ecretary Manning Going Home to

HE HAS NO DOUBT THE PRESIDENT WILL ALSO. Secretary Manning has sent to Alton B. Parker, chairman of the executive committee of the New York democratic state committee, a letter saying: It is my intention to go to Albany next month for the purpose of voting the democratic ticket, which should be, and I believe will be, elected. I have no doubt that President Cleveland will do likewise. While governor of the state he never failed to go to Buffalo to exercise this right, and I am sure he feels it to be his duty to do so now. Oertainly he is anxious for the success of the ticket headed by Gov. Hill, as he was for the success of that ticket which his own name led to viotory three years ago."

The alliance of the three emperors has compromised affairs. King Milan declares that he will wait only fourteen days, and then he will take steps to restore the equilibrium. The impression is general that the meetings of the embassadors have not accomplished what was expected. The Turkish military preparations are, however, directed against Servia and Greece. Russia is reported anxious to give the throne of Bulgaria to the Duke of Cumberland. A leading Servian statesman writes: "We are advised to keep quiet, but if we do Bulgaria will get everything. Then Bulgaria and Turkey will pounce upon us amidst the apand Turkey will pounce upon us amidst the applause of the European powers. The Balkan peninsula is resuming the appearance of nine years ago. Old war cries are heard on all sides. Servia is literally in arms." The papers this morning all express uncertainty and anxiety,
